

Kōkua Moloka'i Journal Prompts

Use one of these journal prompts or essential questions to guide your writing:

- Follow a water drop mauka to makai in this ahupua'a.
- Write a poem about this spot in the ahupua'a.
- Use an 'Ōlelo No'eau proverb to gain a historical perspective about this place.
- Pay attention to each of your senses and write what you see, hear, smell, taste, and touch. Don't forget to include your na'au (gut feeling) about this place.
- Use what you know about this ahupua'a to write a riddle related to this place.
- Write from the perspective of a tree or a rock in this ahupua'a.

Essential Questions:

- What is the biocultural significance of this place?
- What are the ecological issues impacting this location and what are the current stewardship efforts?
- How can I help be a steward for this location?

Biocultural: (definition) - Understanding the interrelationship between the ecosystem and the cultural uses of an area.

